OLD CAPE COD

On our cover, is the most well known of all of the Cape Cod windmills located in Eastham. It is visible on the left of Route 6 as the motorist heads toward Provincetown. The old mill was made by hand, machinery and all, in Plymouth in 1680. It was moved and operated in Truro and eventually ended in its present location where it is open to the public weekdays from June until Labor Day.

were replaced by a single revolving lamp magnified greatly by a prism reflector. In 1932, the light was converted to electric power. It flashes now with 620,000 candlepower every five seconds. Access to the cliff dune face is now prohibited because of erosion.

photo at left .. The beach at Nauset as viewed from the top of the cliff. This is a continuation of the beach below Highland and makes a magnificent sweep of many miles all the way to the Cape tip. Constant erosion undermines the sand cliff and the new sand changes the contours of the beach every year. This is a part of the Cape Cod National Seashore which will preserve this section in its natural state as much as nature will allow. This is the place to see Cape Cod as it was before the developers came.

Letter to Mrs. Kozicki

No person who enters Center School and absorbs the atmosphere there can fail to be impressed. The caring discipline of your administration is so evident. This kind of nurturing of the children under your care is not only a credit to Mattapoisett but it is an all-but-lost element that our nation must regain if our educational system is to win back any stature in the world. Years ago, this was normal in our nation's schools. Now it is rare and precious.

Parents who have had children in your care, parents who have children about to start in school, know and appreciate the quality that you maintain. You cannot begin to imagine the respect and admiration

HIGH QUALITY DIAMONDS.

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE.

Discriminating people appreciate quality. The thought of purchasing a home, an automobile, or even a bottle of fine wine that is anything short of what they really want would be unheard of. The same holds true with diamonds, the hardest natural gemstone known to man. But there's more to a diamond than meets the eye.

Two diamonds that look alike at first may, in fact, be very different. And two diamonds of equal size can have very unequal values. Take, for example, the diamonds above and below. The differences between them are subtle indeed. To understand these differences is to understand the 4C's: Cut, Color, Clarity and Carat-weight. It is these characteristics that determine the value of a diamond. When you buy diamond jewelry, you'll want the diamonds, no matter what their size, to be the best quality. And we don't need to tell you the difference that quality makes.

Your jeweler is the expert where diamonds are concerned. He can explain the 4C's in more detail, as well as show you high quality diamonds in all sizes. They simply look better, and will enhance your jewelry no matter what its design. Quality. It's unmistakable. And it's as important in diamonds as in anything else you own.

A diamond is forever.

that you have earned so quietly and efficiently and with such tender concern for young minds. Those who are very fortunate can count our most gifted and influential teachers on the fingers of one hand. It is a rare gift. Equally important is the support and atmosphere necessary to teach in the most effective manner. In this community we have had the great fortune to have had you to start the children on the proper path to their highest potential.

You are a lady of high standards and we are sure that you weighed each element in your decision to submit your resignation most carefully. Perhaps, however, you may have underestimated the tremendous admiration of this whole community. It may be that with this to reconsider you may tip the scales in our favor.

Please withdraw your resignation and remain at Center School.

Mattapoisett Election Results

CLARA MORGAN, SCHOOL COMMITTEE WINNER

Receiving a mandate from the voters of Mattapoisett last Tuesday, Mrs. Clara D. Morgan was the victor in the two-way race for the three-year term on the Mattapoisett School Committee with a resounding 1043 votes. The retired Mattapoisett school teacher sought election for the first time, after her appointment to the school committee to fill a vacancy.

The 1297 voting was 34.22 percent of registered voters. Voting figures printed elsewhere were not the final official figures.

Mrs. Ellen M. Driscoll, incumbent to the School Committee seat, received 228 votes. Mrs. Driscoll wishes to thank all her friends who helped in her campaign and all those who voted for her. She especially expressed appreciation for the opportunity to have served the Town of Mattapoisett. "I wish Clara every success in her new position", Mrs. Driscoll said.

A second contested race saw incumbent Richard E. chase retain his seat on the Planning Board for another five years. Mr. Chase received 685 votes and his opponent, Christopher Jaskolka, received 490 votes. Mr. Jaskolka, who ran for the office on stickers in 1988, said he will try again.

The only other contested race was for two slots for Constable. Incumbents R. Stanley Ennis, Sr., with 996 votes, and William O. Simpson, with 843 votes, retained their posts. Robert F. Demers, the opponent, received 205 votes.

Celebrating her victory with other election winners, Selectman John DeCosta who won a fifth term and Water/Sewer Commissioner Charles A. Morgan, Mrs. Morgan was jubilant as friends and well wishers came to the Mattapoisett Inn to congratulate her at a victory party. A corsage awaited her from her brother, Parker Dexter, of Concord.

In commenting on her win, Mrs. Morgan said, "I ran a clean campaign and with the help of my chairman, Betty Smith, and many, many helpers, it was a successful one. I thank them all." She said she felt the town has placed its faith in her and she will respond -- "I will listen; I will serve the community, and I will always be fair."

All other races were uncontested:

Amended Pier Plans Presented

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
APRIL 4, 1989-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

During the brief Selectmen's meeting last Tuesday, the Board received an amended plan from Gottfried and Virginia Maurer, Sherborn, MA., regarding a project to erect a pier across the salt marsh on Mattapoisett River. An earlier plan was not recommended by Shellfish Constable Brian Nunes who felt it a hazard to shellfish in the area.

Mr. Maurer's application to the state Department of Environmental Quality Engineering, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and the Environmental Protection Agency will now end the fixed structure at the mean high water mark and will reduce the length of the ramp from 20 to 16 feet, thus reducing the theoretical extension into the river from 63 to 24 feet beyond the mean high water mark. It is obvious that the float will be grounded at mean low water, but the other docks in the area must also be in that state, Mr. Maurer notes. He also noted that the treatment on the wood piling is the treatment of choice of the appropriate agency.

Selectmen agreed with the new plan for a walkway and pier in the Mattapoisett River providing it meets with Constable Nunes' approval. Mr. Maurer also feels he has settled the objections of Mrs. Priscilla will be effective from March 30 to June 30, 1989.

RECEIVED NOTICE from the State Division of Marine Fisheries that each coastal municipality is being asked to prioritize the designated shellfish areas in order of importance to the community. The appraisal and ordering should be based upon the significance of each area with regard to the following criteria: commercial shellfish landings, recreational shellfishing, the presence of shellfish grants or aquaculture licenses or some other reason stated by the community relative to the area's significance as a shellfish producing area.

The Division is asking for this information due to the necessity to complete sanitary surveys related to the classification of shellfish growing waters as either approved (open) or prohibited (closed) by September 1, 1989. This deadline has been imposed upon Massachusetts and other northeastern states by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration. If the Commonwealth does not meet the September 1, 1989 deadline, the state will be forced to close all shellfish areas in which sanitary surveys have not been completed regardless of their current classification or water quality.

Sanitary surveys are considered the "first critical control point" in determining the acceptability of shellfish from various growing waters for human consumption.

The sanitary survey effort will be confined to currently approved (open) areas in order to insure that areas now open are not closed due to a lack of having a completed survey. Closed areas will be addressed at a later date.

There appear to be 11 areas Mattapoisett has to be concerned about specifically. Selectmen Chairman William F. Hubbard said there are some serious problems that must be addressed.

NOTED the State Division of Marine Fisheries has determined that shellfish growing area Pine Island Pond Channel and Shining Tide Beach, west no longer meet the established criteria for approved, due to the relay of contaminated oysters from Eel Pond and the Mattapoisett River.

WERE INFORMED by Senator William Q. MacLean, Jr. (D-Fairhaven) that the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) is currently conducting a study to determine the feasibility of providing commuter rail service to the Greater New Bedford/Fall River area. The proposed route would originate at South Station in Boston and travel through Stoughton to Taunton on existing track which was last operated by the Boston and Providence Railroad line in 1958. The rail service could then be extended to New Bedford on existing freight track.

As an alternative, the MBTA has also requested that the study include an analysis of the feasibility of expanding bus service

Planning Board Hearing

FOR PIER ON BRANDT ISLAND

Reported by VIRGINIA MORGAN

A Planning Board public hearing held last Tuesday (April 4) on the application of Brandt Island Association for a dock into Brandt Island Cove fell on the deadline date of 30 days from the day of application (March 4) with the State Department of Environmental Quality Engineering. About 20 persons attended.

Town Counsel Donald J. Fleming explained the process, saying the Planning Board has 30 days from the application date to hold a public hearing to hear comments both pro and con, and then 15 days in which to file the board's recommendation to DEQE. He noted a failure to act is tantamount to approval.

Following the meeting, board Chairman William H. Matthews said a letter will be sent to the State DEQE saying, "We, the Planning Board, do not feel we are in a position to make a decision as we don't have sufficient information on the state's delineation of shellfishing areas." Chairman Matthews commented that both sides presented facts and reasonable explanations of their positions. He added that the Planning Board is not under any mandate to offer its position. "We feel the state's position on shellfish areas is vague."

Robert A. Cattley, engineer for the project, was spokesperson for the Association. The Association is comprised of Ann G. Leibowitz, treasurer of the association, and David H. and Saliva A. Cahan of Dover.

The project includes plans to construct in Brandt Island Cove a 256 foot long, four foot wide fixed pier to a 16 foot long articulating ramp landing on a 54 foot long "T" floating pier from the island. The floating pier will be used by the members of the association to moor boats and to provide ready access to the water.

Harvey J. Blanchette, an abutter living at Brandt Island Beach (on the mainland), spoke in opposition to the pier saying "The Brandt Island Association should not be confused by the Brandt Island Improvement Association. The Brandt Island Association is comprised of two families who reside on the island." He said any structure in that area will be detrimental to shellfishing. "I'm against further expansion. Irregardless of whether you just have a pier, the pier is classified as a marina."

In response to a question from Mr. Blanchette, Mr. Cattley said he has contacted the state DEQE for a license under Chapter 91-Waterways; they in turn notify the U.S. Army Corps of Engineering and the federal EPA. Mr. Cattley also answered Mr. Blanchette's question on the number of boats to be moored, saying two power boats, 20 to 30 feet in length.

Mrs. Candice Kruger of Brandt Island Road expressed opposition. She said, "We need safe delineation along the channel." She had a concern with the homeowners in the future Nunes' property golf course/house development who will probably want to put up docks. "We need to set rules now." She added, "I also understand there is a desire of the applicants to do water skiing in the area. I believe", she said, "that this is prohibited in waterways channels."

Shellfish Constable Brian Nunes submitted a letter from the State Division of Marine Fisheries noting that if the area is designated as a marina area, shellfish beds must be closed during the marina's use; that is, unless hydrographic studies can show no damage.

Constable Nunes said, "I am against this project now before we start losing more shellfish areas. We don't know what will happen with all the new regulations on docks. This area in Brandt island Cove is prominent to shellfishing and to the aquaculture grant being conducted in the area. This pier could increase our closures with more boating in the area. If the grant area is harmed the violators could be fined three times the shellfish damage."

Greg Sawyer, a citizen, said if the dock goes in most likely the area will be closed seasonally to shellfishing when the marina is in operation. He noted five or six areas in town are now closed; Brandt Island Cove is the only place untouched by fecal contamination for shellfishing. It may be the only area open by September 1, 1989.

Rochester Boy Scouts SEEKS DAGGETT HALL REBUILDING FUNDS

Rochester Boy Scout Troop 31 is seeking funds to rebuild Daggett Hall, which was destroyed by fire last December.

The hall was named after Calvin Daggett, who founded the troop thirty years ago and served as Scoutmaster until his death in 1980.

The hall is used for meetings, dining, and shelter during the troops' stays at the camp.

Old Colony Regional High School has designed and begun construction of the new building, estimating materials costs at $9000.00.

Dr. Tremblay Visits 2nd Grade

On Monday during National Wildlife Week, Dr. Tremblay, a Vet from the Marion Animal Hospital, came in with two predators - a red tail hawk and a barn owl. Predators are animals that eat other animals. Some predators are snakes, hawks, lizards, cats, sharks, frogs, wolves and foxes. Predators can help us. A red-tail hawk eats mice and lives in the forest. Dr. Tremblay's hawk is called Pinball and is about 2 feet tall. It has brown and red feathers. Dr. Tremblay uses Pinball to hunt. Pinball wears bells on his ankles so Dr. Tremblay knows where he is.

The barn owl is a predator with brown and black feathers and a white face. It eats hawks (because hawks can't see at night) and mice from barns. Barn owls have ruffled wings that go in and out when they fly so they are silent. They can hear a mouse under a foot of snow. Barn owls are getting poisoned because they are eating mice that have poisonous spray on them.

We like having Dr. Tremblay come with the predators because he showed us what they were like and he taught us a lot.

Letters to the Editor

For the record, I personally have never had reason to question either the performance or the professionalism of Principal Katherine Kozicki of Center School, Mattapoisett, whom I nominated as Principal of the year in 1985 in recognition of her outstanding contribution to the students of Mattapoisett. When Mrs. Kozicki spoke to me of her intention to retire, I urged her very strongly to remain and asked her to think it over very carefully as I believed it was neither in our nor in her best interest to retire. She gave my request careful consideration and made her decision to retire. After her resignation, in response to community request, I asked her to reconsider; she indicated her decision was final. I respect that decision as I respect her and the care and concern she has given to our children during her years of exemplary service to the town. As a Mattapoisett resident, I also share the community's respect and concern for her as a person and as an educator.

TO THE EDITOR

With area high school proms just a few weeks away, we are reminded that the number one killer of teenagers is drunk driving. 80% of all fatal alcohol-related auto crashes occur between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m.

Parents, your children don't necessarily have to drink and do drugs to be killed. Support programs to insure these celebrations are remembered with joy, not anguish.

Our daughter Michelle and her college roommate, Cindy Zarek, both 19, were passengers in an auto driven by a 19 year old who had been drinking. Both Michelle and Cindy died in the crash. The driver was slightly injured. Today his parents can talk to him...not about him.

Students, if the thought of losing your life doesn't keep you from drinking and driving, imagine losing your license. The driver that killed Michelle and Cindy has lost his driver's license for 10 years. We hope every time he has to ask someone for a ride he remembers why this is neces-

eye talk
Q. Is it true that some contact lenses can be worn for 30 days without removing them?
A. Extended-wear contact lenses have been approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for up to 30 days of continuous wear but, in actual practice, wearing time between removals for cleaning generally varies from a few days to a week.
Wearing problems can develop with dirty lenses. Don't be discouraged from trying extended-wear lenses, however.
With professional monitoring by an optometrist using a special microscope, many people have good success with them. The key is to start with a thorough eye examination by an optometrist skilled in prescribing extended-wear lenses and to return for recommended follow-up care.
That may mean visits to your optometrist three or four times a year. Such frequency is necessary to avoid wearing problems. At the same time, your eye health and vision can be monitored.

EMTs (Emergency Medical Technicians) are highly skilled and respected professionals who respond to calls for emergency assistance. Working in teams, EMTs staff ambulances, assess the condition of the victim and provide basic life support on-the-scene and enroute to the hospital. Together with paramedics and hospital-based emergency doctors and nurses, EMTs play a critical role in the emergency medical system by providing pre-hospital care for the ill and injured.

St. Luke's course begins Monday, April 17th, and concludes on Saturday, July 15th. Classes meet Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30 and some Saturdays. Faculty members include emergency physicians, nurses and paramedics on staff at the hospital. The fee is $300. and includes all materials and textbooks.

Applicants must be 18 years of age and hold a high school diploma or equivalent. For more information or for an application call 997-1515, extension 2183.

ductions in the troupe's fourteen-year history. Over a year in preparation, "Club", written and performed by The Karamazovs, brings together a variety of disciplines and technologies. Using computers, synthesizers and specially-designed radio-controlled props, The Karamazovs' latest production is a tribute to their inventiveness. Gilbert and Sullivan's classic patter song, "I Am the Very Model of a Modern Major General", becomes a summation of the Karamazovs' diverse skills as the brothers juggle, dance and sing simultaneously "We are the Very Model of A Modern Vaudeville Juggling Troupe".

The centerpiece of The Karamazovs' performance offers the ultimate in audience participation. With "The Gamble", a Karamazov tradition, the audience is invited to bring impossible objects for the troupe to juggle, as long as they are smaller than than a bread box and weigh less than ten pounds. Past performances have seen such items as pizzas, raw chickens, skateboards and chainsaws juggled....and, on some occasions, dropped. If the juggler succeeds, he wins a standing ovation; if he fails, he receives a pie in his face.

The Zeiterion Theatre is located at 684 Purchase Street in historic, downtown New Bedford.

Each year the Lloyd Center offers several canoe trips down area rivers. From the unique perspective of paddling upon a river, you can view the spectrum of marine and plant life around you.

The trip on April 22 will feature a look at the Slocum River. Mary Beth Bishop, Lloyd Center Senior Instructor, will be leading participants and discussing the natural history of the area. At various points along the river, Ms. Bishop will stop and seine for animal life.

The cost of the trip is $15. for Lloyd Center members and $20. for non-members. Participants should bring a lunch, drinks and binoculars. Also, pre-registration is required, so please call 990-0505 to sign up or for more information on any Lloyd Center offering. Lloyd Center canoes will be available for use at $4. per canoe. These trips are corporate supported by William F. Nye, Inc. and Bosworth Insurance Agency, Inc.

Youth Leadership Seminar

Leadership will be the topic and area students will be the audience when the New Bedford Chapter of the Military Order of the World Wars (MOWW) sponsors its first "Youth Leadership Seminar" on April 29th.

Howard C. Renfree, publicity spokesman for the Order, said approximately 60 Greater New Bedford and Fall River area high school sophomores and juniors representing 16 high schools have been invited to take part in the event.

The cost of the all-day program to be held at the Skipper Motor Inn, Fairhaven will be fully underwritten by the Order.

participate, it's not just military leaders and not just patriotic education that will hold center stage at the seminar. Edwin B. Gilchrest Jr., Commander of the local MOWW Chapter, said the program "is designed to provide the young people with a unique opportunity to interact with successful community leaders from government, industry and education".

The keynote speaker will be Mark C.W. Montigny, Director of the Fall River Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Gilchrest, an Acushnet resident and retired Navy officer, said students will also be given the precepts for, and examples of successful leadership. The bottom line objectives, he said, are to recognize exemplary youth leaders; urge young people to make the most of their leadership potential; and encourage a sense of community responsibility among today's youth.

The tentative schedule for the seminar, planned for 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., calls for the opening greeting to be delivered by Mayor John K.Bullard of New Bedford.

A series of panel discussions will follow on topics including "Leadership Indicators", "Leadership in Action", "Is Patriotism Fashionable?" and "Community Responsibilities".

WEDDINGTON AND SCHLAFLY TO DEBATE ROE VS WARD AT SMU APRIL 18

Sarah Weddington and Phyllis Schlafly will debate Roe v Wade, the landmark Supreme Court ruling on abortion at 7:30 p.m. April 18th in the Southeastern Massachusetts University Campus Center main auditorium.

At age 26, lawyer Sarah Weddington successfully defended "Jane Roe" in the historic case giving women the right to terminate a pregnancy. The case is again scheduled for a Supreme Court hearing at the end of April.

Currently a history and government lecturer at both the University of Texas and Texas Women's University, Weddington has extensive government as well as legal experience. For three years she was assistant to President Jimmy Carter for women's affairs. She then spent two years as top lobbyist for the State of Texas and Director of the Office of State and Federal Relations in Washington. She also served three years as a legislator in the Texas House of Representatives.

Phyllis Schlafly, a leader in conservative legal, economic, and social issues, is credited with almost singled-handedly defeating the Equal Rights Amendment. A graduate of Harvard and Washington Universities, Schafly has authored a dozen books, among them A Choice Not an Echo, Child Abuse in the Classroom, and The Power of the Positive Woman.

Schafly writes a syndicated news column, broadcasts a daily radio commentary, and compiles a monthly news letter, as well as keeping up an active, nationwide speaking schedule. One favorite topic is the economic issue of comparable worth. She believes woman's worth is "incomparable", and so wages should be set by a free market economy, rather than by the government.

Tickets for the debate are $4. for the general public, $2. for students. They may be purchased at the door or in advance. For ticket information telephone 999-8136.

Tobacco Use and Cancer

The American Cancer Society, Massachusetts Division, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and the Southeastern Massachusetts AHEC will present a workshop entitled Tobacco Use and Cancer on Thursday, April 20th, from 9:00 a.m. to noon at the White House, St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford. There is no charge for this workshop and refreshments will be served. Registered nurses and licensed practical nurses will be awarded 3.5 contact hours for attending this program. Application for 3.0 contact hours for registered dieticians is pending.

Practical approaches to smoking prevention and cessation, including the addictive properties of nicotine, smoking and youth, review of smoking cessation methods, role of community organizations, creating a smoke-free environment, and cultural/ethnic issues will be presented. ERNA YAFFE FOUNDATION

Bristol Community College will host the three-part "Healthy People Series: The Family Connection", sponsored by the Erna Yaffe Foundation. The free program offers local perspectives on stress, substance abuse, teenage pregnancy, violence and poor communication within the family, according to Carol Bundy, projects director for the Erna Yaffe Foundation.

"Few families are free from stress or personal problems that could affect their health negatively. Teen pregnancy is sill on the rise and substance abuse infuses families at all economic and social levels," said Ms. Bundy. "We need to inform the community about these problems and discuss new, convenient service sponsored by the Social Security Administration.

Each new parent receives a special brochure detailing the advantages of early application for a child's social security number. If the parent wishes, Tobey's Medical Record Department assists in forwarding the birth information to the Social Security Administration, and a social security card is mailed directly to the parents' home address. This means that parents can avoid a trip to the Social Security Office.

You may need a social security number for your child for many reasons, including opening a bank account, buying savings bonds, or receiving some kinds of government services. Also, beginning in 1989, you will need a social security number for all children age two or over, in order to claim them as dependents for tax purposes.

WARENESS HOURS

The public is cordially invited to the econd in a series of awareness hours sponored by the Marion Center for Human Services. This session will feature a film and iscussion offering insight, help and hope or families of alcoholics and substance abusrs. It will be held on Saturday, April 2nd, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon at the enter's offices, 335 Wareham Road in Marin. The event is free of charge, although onations are welcome.

"Alcoholism and drug addiction are family iseases," comments Marion Center Executive irector Nancy Mahoney. "The entire fami is affected. We want this awareness hour o be a time when family members can come o ask questions and ask for some support - to get some information and understandng about what is happening in their famies, about how it may be affecting their wn lives, and about some resources availble to them."

A film will be shown entitled "Co-Dependency Update", narrated by Sharon Wegscheider-Cruse. In this film, Ms. Wegscheider-Cruse discusses the roles taken on by family members of chemically-dependent people. She defines behaviors, feelings and attitudes of co-dependency and offers alternatives, encouraging treatment, self-help and support. A discussion and question-and-answer period will follow the film, facilitated by Ms. Mahoney and Marion Center Social Worker Robin Cambra.

The Marion Center for Human Services is a community-based licensed mental health clinic serving families and individuals in southeastern Massachusetts. For more information call 748-2850.

From Old Colony

OPENINGS AT OLD COLONY

A limited number of 10th and 11th grade openings in selected shop programs are available for September at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School. Old Colony accepts students who reside in the towns of Acushnet, Carver, Mattapoisett, and Rochester. In addition, some students are accepted from Freetown and Lakeville.

Tenth grade openings exist in Health Careers, Culinary Arts, Electronics, Data Processing, and Machine Shop. In addition, openings are available to eleventh graders in the Health Careers Program.

Any student interested in applying for one of the openings should contact their school's guidance counselor or contact Mrs. Paula Simmons at Old Colony by calling 763-8011, extension 28.

NAMED TO HONOR ROLL - OLD COLONY

Report cards for the second trimester at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School have recently been mailed to parents and/or guardians. Among the students commended for excellent achievement the speaker will be Stephen Xavier, trance channeler, expert intuit, and workshop facilitator from Wakefield, RI. This event will begin at 10 a.m. with a whole foods catered brunch at 11:30. A children's program will be provided simultaneously with the adult program. The cost is $10. for non-members, $8. members, and $2. for children. To make reservations or for more information call Louise at 993-1151. The location for the April brunch is the Standish House on the corner of Sixth and School Streets in downtown New Bedford. An afternoon workshop is also planned from 2 to 5 p.m. for $15., also at the Standish House.

In October 1987 Stephen Xavier left his job as a media specialist in the corporate world to "follow his destiny" which had begun several years previously in the form of training, study, and research. His intent now is to assist people to enhance their intuit awareness skills and to demonstrate a sense of alignment.

He will begin with a 15-minute monologue and then do a trance channeling session. He will close with an audience question/participation.

N.B. Whaling Museum

SPRING EVENING PROGRAMS

The New Bedford Whaling Museum is pleased to announce the first of its spring evening programs, "Weird and Tragic Shores" by Dr. Chauncey C. Loomis, on April 27 at 8 p.m. in the Museum Theater.

The Arctic explorer, Charles Francis Hall, died in 1871 on Greenland's northwest coast supposedly of apoplexy. On April 27, a different explanation will be offered by Dr. Chauncey C. Loomis, who traveled to the place where Hall died in 1968, exhumed his body (with permission from the Danish government), and had an autopsy performed.

How Hall died and why will be the subject of Dr. Loomis' illustrated lecture, which promises to be one of the most unusual tales ever told at the Whaling Museum. Of local interest will be the fact that one of Hall's Arctic expeditions was financed by a New Bedford-born merchant, Henry Grinnell.

Professor of English at Dartmouth College, Dr. Loomis has visited the Arctic on various occasions and is the author of a biography of Hall, published by A.A. Knopf in 1971 under the title Weird and Tragic Shores. His lecture at the Museum is presented under the sponsorship of the Samuel D. Rusitzky Lecture Fund. The public

Rock-a-Thon

LONG PLAIN METHODIST CHURCH

It's time for Long Plain's members and friends to dust off their rocking chairs and get ready to rock the night away!

Each year the church sponsors an annual Rock-A-Thon. The Rockers ask for pledges for the 15 hours or rocking. All money goes towards a specific goal. This year our goal is to buy a much needed copying machine for the church.

We have used the proceeds to help build an access ramp, buy a wheelchair for one of our members plus other projects.

New Games Mini-Course

OFFERED AT LLOYD CENTER

Are your kids, neighbors or students tired of the same old tired games? Come join the Lloyd center and learn "New Games" on Saturday, April 15th, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Center located on 430 Potomska Road in South Dartmouth.

The one-day workshop is targeted to an audience of adults who frequently work with children and will feature fun, non-competitive group-building activities specially designed for children 3-7 years old. Instructors Bette Low and Mike Rego from the Lloyd Center's Education Department are trained in working with children and making education and play an interwoven experience for adults and children alike. Some new games they will teach participants are "Crows and Cranes", "Oh! Deer" and "Ankle-biters". These and others promise to be filled with high energy and countless smiles.

If you are interested in developing initiative, enthusiasm and curiosity in children that you teach or know, this mini-course will teach you how. By using playful, educational games in a learning environment, you can enhance the learning experience for children.

Please call the Lloyd Center at 990-0505 to register. The fee is $15. for non-members and $10. for Lloyd Center members.

Lloyd Center Walk

GLACIAL GEOLOGY OF DARTMOUTH SUBJECT OF WEEKLY WALK

So, you say you already know about the plant and animal life in Dartmouth, but do you know how the very foundation of the earth's surface was formed and how to identify the structural characteristics resulting from glacial action?

Opportunity is knocking if you would like to learn. The Lloyd center for Environmental Studies, located in South Dartmouth, is offering a weekly walk titled "The Rocky Road", on Sunday, April 23rd, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., and the public is invited to attend. Participants will meet at the Center and then by car caravan scour Dartmouth for geologic clues.

The walk will be led by Ethan Guiles, Education Instructor at the Lloyd Center, and will feature an exploration of Dartmouth's glacial deposits such as kettle holes, drumlins, and outwashes. Mr. Guiles will explain as you view them how these features were formed and discuss the geological history surrounding Dartmouth.

When pressed to consider the mystery and complexity of glacial formation, it might be well to ask "You mean, a dirty ice cube made all this?" Join the Lloyd Center for a "down to earth" explanation.

This and all Lloyd center weekly walks are free and open to the public thanks to the generosity of Marianne MacDonald Real Estate in South Dartmouth. Please call to pre-register at 990-0505.

Lloyd Center Workday

WE NEED YOU! to help us clean, build, paint and do other odd jobs around the Lloyd Center, both inside and out. We provide you with the tools and you provide us with the labor. Workday begins at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 22nd. Come and join us as we do our annual spring cleaning of the Center and the property.

Workday is a wonderful opportunity to see the Lloyd Center and the property up close. You can spend the day outside working in our butterfly garden, cutting trees, clearing trails or inside working in the library, painting or cleaning our woodstove. These are just an example of some of our spring cleaning projects we have at the Lloyd Center.

If you plan on coming to workday, please bring a lunch; the Center will provide liquid refreshments. If you have any questions call the Center at 990-0505.

Crafts Gallery at Glass Museum

The New Bedford Glass Museum announces the opening of the area's first major contemporary crafts gallery.

The New Crafts Gallery, occupying the recently renovated ground floor of the Glass Museum's historic mansion, will feature new works by important and emerging artists in glass, metals, ceramics, and wood. Although the emphasis will be on artists with ties to the community and to glass, the New Crafts Gallery's roster will include artists from the major glassmaking centers on the west coast, the southwest, midwest, and eastern seaboard. Other media, including metals, ceramics, and wood, will be represented primarily by New England artisans.

According to Glass Museum Director Janie Chester Young, The New Crafts Gallery will function commercially as well as educationally. "When we first exhibited contemporary glass in 1986," she stated, "we found an overwhelmingly enthusiastic, yet naive, audience. The focus in New Bedford had been so long on our antique glass heritage, that most area residents weren't aware of the enormous studio glass movement that has been building in this country since 1962. The New Crafts Gallery is the best way for a small museum, like NBGM, to afford the opportunity of exhibiting new developments and encouraging a new audience for contemporary crafts. After all, an art work that is for sale is the most accessible exhibition of all."

The New Crafts Gallery is also a reflection of the substantial artisanry movement in New Bedford itself. In addition to the century of glassmaking, metal design, and porcelain decoration that New Bedford enjoyed from 1867 to 1956, New Bedford is currently the site of a nationally important artisanry program. The graduate-level Program in Artisanry at Southeastern Massachusetts University, which evolved through the former Swain School of Design, has a faculty of nationally and internationally famed ceramicists, wood sculptors, glassmakers, and metalsmiths. Works by several P.I.A. faculty and students are represented in The New Crafts Gallery.

Among the artists now on display are jeweler Marcia McDonald, furniture maker Tim Ragle, and glassmakers Elizabeth Pennell, Dave and Susie Von Trotha, Dan Read, Jim Holmes and Deborah Doane.

A preview party of new glass works is scheduled for April 13th, 5 until 8 p.m., and the public is invited. Objects included in the current show range from $24. to $2,500.

The New Crafts Gallery is located on the ground floor of The New Bedford Glass

The Performance Racquet with The Clear Advantage

Introducing the prince®

Graphtech DB with

Double Bridge Design

Players of all levels can now enjoy solid, comfortable tennis for hours at a time. The medium firm flex of the new Prince GraphTech DB produces substantial power with a soft, forgiving feel. All-court players will also appreciate the racquet's sleek, aerodynamic shape resulting in greater maneuverability.

The First Racquet That Dampens Both String And Racquet Vibration

The Double Bridge Design is a major Prince accomplishment in racquet technology. Recognizing that racquet vibrations are transmitted down the sides of the frame and meet in the throat area, Prince engineers determined that by inserting a clear elastomer between the two bridges, vibrations and ball impact shock were dampened before reaching the handle.

To dampen string bed vibration, the six main strings pass through the individually molded holes in the clear elastomer insert. This clear elastomer creates a tight seal with both the string and the upper and lower bridges of the racquet, simultaneously dampening both string and racquet vibrations.
